CableOrganizer.com Issues Top 10 Reasons Label Printers Make Great Gifts

Label Makers: The Most Versatile Gadget Gift on Earth?

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, October 26, 2009 - While a label printer may not be on everyone's "gotta have it" wish list, these nifty gadgets are actually an addictive luxury that, once owned, people can't seem to live without. This according to CableOrganizer.com (<http://CableOrganizer.com>), among the world's leading providers of cable, wire and equipment management solutions for use in business and at home, which offers an array of personal & industrial label printers, label makers, and label printer refills from leading manufacturers, including Dymo®, Brother®, Brady®, K-Sun®, and Panduit®.

In true David Letterman fashion, below are CableOrganizer.com's top 10 reasons why label printers make a great gift for the holidays, birthdays and other such occasions.

A label maker makes a great gift because it:

10. Takes the mystery out of the forest of indiscernible spray bottles and containers underneath the sink
9. Clarifies what toys and belongings go with what child to thwart sibling skirmishes
8. Teaches kids how to sort out and put away their toys and laundry
7. Distinguishes from afar exactly what pair of shoes are in that box on the top shelf of the closet
6. Designs great return address labels and scrapbook elements, as they can also print fancy graphics
5. Makes clear exactly what is on those burned CDs and DVDs
4. Helps identify important elements on a complicated piece of equipment (where's the fuel shutoff valve again?)
3. Delineates exactly what home theater or computing cable goes with what device amid the tangled wiring octopus
2. Keeps the peace...there will be no mistake of who owns that look-alike iPod®
1. Scores romance points through strategically and unusually-placed love notes – an "I heart U" label on the bathroom mirror, car window, key chain, and in the fridge or lunchbox can do wonders

Although Letterman certainly wouldn't approve, CableOrganizer.com can't resist offering a few more reasons label printers are a fresh holiday gift idea:

- Stakes a claim for what is rightfully yours – keeps Joe Blow's paws off everyone else's food in the break room fridge
- Makes home office filing cabinets, folders and other file systems far more organized and efficient
- Eliminates the need to scribble rushed, barely legible luggage tags at the baggage check point
- Makes great return address labels – however "cute" or business-like the correspondence calls for
- Any self-professed "gadget guru's" cool-stuff arsenal is simply not complete without one
