

stability

- Durable plastic construction
- Available in orange or white
- Available for online purchase at CableOrganizer.com for just $10.00

View additional product information online at: <http://cableorganizer.com/one-man-tied/>

Don't Get Wrapped Up in Your Desk Cables

That's What This Guy is For!

The "One Man Tied" isn't your boring, run of the mill desk organizer. This miniature wire tidier is friendly and functional, offering a humorous appeal to those in need of cord control. The One Man Tied will let you wrap your table top cables around him to keep them out of your way, and his suction cup base will ensure that he and your wires will stay firmly in place. He's also made out of durable plastic so you can take your wire frustrations out on him...wrap him as tight as you want! The one man tied is great for use in dorms, offices, households, and any other desktop environment that may have rampant cords – and welcomes a bit of personality. Available at CableOrganizer.com for just $10.00, his economical price tag can easily fit into most people's budget, and makes him a great gift idea.

At about 4 inches tall and 2 wide, the One Man Tied cord organizer is the perfect desktop cord organization tool. Features

- Size: 4 inches tall
- Available in orange and white
- Suction cup base for ease of use and

